The article title is '« Nous allons élaguer les textes "décentralisation" et les centrer sur leurs dimensions essentielles » – Jean-Pierre Sueur (commission des lois)'. The author is 'Par L. Marie' and the publication date is 'Publié le 13/05/2013 à 13h 10'. The article text discusses the Senate's examination of a law project for territorial public action and metropolitan affirmation, mentioning Senator Jean-Pierre Sueur's call for clarity in the distribution of competences. A section titled 'Que pensez-vous du découpage du texte en trois parties ?' contains a comment from the author stating that he had previously requested three shorter, clearer texts instead of the current three-part structure, and that he regrets the current structure's lack of clarity. The article concludes with a note on the importance of parliamentary work and the author's role as rapporteur.
